Camping Fun

Ages 3 to 6 July 12th - 17th

9:30 - Noon Monday - Friday Limit 15 $125

Pretend you're on a camping trip with dozen friends. Take a trip to the fishing pond, learn about nature, make crafts, eat smores, and sing songs around the "camp fire." This is just a sampling of our week of camping fun.

Fairy Tales & More

Ages 3 to 6 July 19th - 23rd

9:30 - Noon Mon - Fri Limit 15 $125

Through dress-up, dramatic play, various art media, stories and songs the children will experience some of the magic and enchantment of such classics as, "Jack & the Beanstalk", "The Frog Prince" and more. On Friday we will host our 2nd annual medieval feast. Children and parents are invited to come in costume, bring a medieval dish and enjoy period games.

More American Girl Fun-1*

Aug 9th-13th

9:30-Noon Mon-Fri Limit 15 $150

Spend each day in a different historical time period along with your American Girl doll. Make crafts, prepare recipes, play games, and learn how Kaya, Josephine, Felicity & Elizabeth, Addy and Rebecca would have lived as you meet new friends, share fun and fellowship, and enjoy another visit from TeePee Ted, our local Native American expert from the Traveling Wilderness Museum.

More American Girl Fun-2 *

Aug 16th-20th

9:30-Noon Mon-Fri Limit 15 $150

Our 2nd week of American Girl fun focuses on the lives and times of Kit & Ruthie, Molly & Emily, Julie & Ivy and the new American Girl of 2010, Lanie. Enjoy more crafts, cooking games, and dramatic play with other girls who love learning about the past while enjoying the present. Our last day families are invited back at 11 am for an old-fashioned "Country Fair" with a potluck luncheon, corn husking contest, apple bobbing and more. All girls are welcome to enter our baking contest and test their culinary skills.

Having an American Girl doll is not necessary to participate in our programs. Any favorite doll is welcome.*
